Hot New York Real Estate Vlog: IntoTheBox.TV

September 25, 2007

Episode: Bad Broker

IntoTheBox.TV is a fantastic new real estate vlog covering the intricacies of the New York City housing market. The star of the show is Rachel Natalie Klein. Is she a natural at this or what? I love it!

This is the type of real estate reality that consumers love. Raw, in your face, everyday real estate related things that people experience. I think they call it transparency. I for one can't wait to see what tomorrow brings.

Way to go Rachel!
