Rachel Klein, a NYC dweller who has moved seven times since moving to NYC, has created a real estate video blog. A former television reporter from Indiana, Ms. Klein started her blogging career when she first moved to Harlem with her blog - A Bagel in Harlem, one woman's quest for a bagel in Harlem.

Ms. Klein does the reporting for Intothebox.tv herself with 2-3 minute video posts on various subjects about the NYC real estate industry, from interviews with real estate experts to tips on looking for new places to live.

Ms. Klein's approach is personal and fun with a little flirting thrown in states one reporter from the New York Sun.
